A Year of Help — and Hope — through the Assistance Program

With Appreciation

Our thanks to the supporters of the Assistance Program in 2016
I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

— John 10:10

300 Years of Caring

Three centuries ago, Presbyterians established the Fund for Pious Uses at the very first meeting of the first synod, in 1717 in Philadelphia. They were committed to caring for pastors and their widows and children. In the decades that followed, Presbyterians upheld that commitment through a series of ministerial relief funds.

That legacy of commitment lives on in The Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), which traces its roots to the Fund for Pious Uses and is celebrating 300 years of care for ministers and other church workers. An agency of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Board of Pensions fulfills its own, unique role in the community of the Church, as the Church looks to the Board to uphold the commitment made by congregations to care for installed pastors, and to provide ways for churches and other Presbyterian-affiliated employers to care for other teaching elders and employees. It does this primarily through administering the Benefits Plan of the PC(USA), managing pension investments, and maintaining the Assistance Program.

Through the Assistance Program of the Board of Pensions, the Church provides needed care and support for PC(USA) pastors and other church workers beyond the scope of the Benefits Plan. Providing financial and other relief to qualifying members of the Benefits Plan, the Assistance Program is an expression of God’s desire for the wholeness and well-being of all people — especially those of the "family of faith."
April 2017

For three centuries, faithful Presbyterians in America have followed Jesus’s call to love one another, preach the gospel, and live in caring community together. One way we do that is by promising, upon the installation of our pastors, to care for them during their times of need.

Sometimes, however, our pastors and other church workers face unexpected challenges. Their lives, like anyone’s, may be in pieces. Perhaps they need assistance with extraordinary medical bills or the cost of entering assisted living. Maybe a loved one has died unexpectedly, and financial concerns only add to their grief.

The Assistance Program of the Board of Pensions can — and does — help in situations such as these. Its programs enable caring Presbyterians like you to walk with our brothers and sisters, to help carry their burdens. That’s why we view the Assistance Program as a ministry of wholeness: It helps repair the torn fabric of church workers’ lives.

In 2016, your gift to the Assistance Program helped mend that fabric, and we are deeply grateful. So, too, are the nearly 1,400 church workers who experienced God’s abundant grace through this ministry, which awarded a total of approximately $5.6 million in assistance last year. Throughout the pages that follow, you’ll see expressions of gratitude in grant recipients’ own words. You’ll also find your name listed as a faithful donor, both to thank you and to inspire others by your example.

While perusing these pages, please remember that no dues support the Assistance Program; instead, the program is funded entirely by gifts, legacies, endowment income, and half the Christmas Joy Offering. Fully 100 percent of each gift is passed on to those in need. The Board of Pensions covers the administrative costs of the Assistance Program through endowed funds accumulated over generations.

Through its ministry of wholeness, the Assistance Program gives expression to our love as a caring community of Christians. Thank you again for helping to lift financial burdens off the shoulders of those PC(USA) pastors and other church workers in need, so they can bring their best gifts to ministry.

Grace and peace,

The Rev. Dr. John G. McFayden
Executive Vice President and Chief of Church Engagement
The Assistance Program: A Ministry of Wholeness

The Assistance Program provides a variety of grants to PC(USA) pastors, other church workers, and their families, helping to restore them to wholeness.

Watch the Board’s 300th anniversary video, Serving Those Who Serve the Church, to appreciate the roots of Presbyterian caring and compassion.

Retired Church Workers with Financial and Housing Needs
A significant portion of Assistance Program monies go toward preserving the independence and dignity of retired church workers, helping to keep them whole.

Through Income Supplements, the Assistance Program supplements the monthly income of eligible, retired church workers who have demonstrated needs. Through Housing Supplements the program also helps eligible, retired church workers or their surviving spouses remain in their own homes or move to retirement or assisted living facilities.

Church Workers with Financial and Vocational Needs
Those pastors and other church workers who earn modest salaries sometimes need assistance with financial needs such as the cost of nursing care for a sick partner, which creates a burden they cannot carry alone. The Assistance Program offers grants to help church workers with such needs, often working closely with mid councils and employers of the Church.

Grant programs include:
• Shared Grants
• Emergency Assistance Grants
• Adoption Assistance Grants
• Transition-to-College Assistance Grants
• Minister Educational Debt Assistance Grants
• Sabbath Sabbatical Support Grants

The Assistance Program receives no funds from dues; its ministry depends on the generosity of caring Presbyterians like you. On behalf of the 1,389 individuals who were helped by this ministry in 2016, thank you for this blessing!
